

When we walk to the edge of all the light we have
And take the step into the darkness of the unknown,
We must believe that one of two things will happen:
There will be something solid for us to stand on
Or we will be taught to fly...

A Message From:
Shafin de Zane
Hypnotherapist, Author, Coach

My Dear Friend,

Truth is not only stranger than you think, its stranger than you can think! You have arrived here today because somewhere somehow you have become ready. Ready to take the next step. Ready to get answers to questions you have been asking recently. I know you know what I am talking about. And let me assure you, you are at the right place. But let me also assure you that this is only the beginning... just like always, you will have the free will to choose when, you will have to finally take the step and walk the path... I can only show you the way.

What is your ultimate goal in life?

I want you to think about it for a moment. What is it that you want out of all the abundance in this universe? How big are your dreams?

Everything has a reason and the fact that you are reading these words (in other words, you have attracted this message to come to you), tells me that you are not satisfied with mediocrity. It also tells me that whatever your situation is right now, however desperate, however ordinary, deep inside you feel this is not the reality you are supposed to live in.

You feel that like a firefly captured inside a glass jar, you too have wings to fly eternal fields but the invisible jar restricts you. You crave for more, dream of raging oceans, boundless skies, a life that is anything but mediocre. I feel you.

I feel you because if you didn't have dreams bigger than who you are right now, then you wouldn't be reading this today. If you didn't want a guide for achieving the impossible, I wouldn't have written this letter. But I have. And YOU have made ME do this! I know this may sound like a strange thing to say, but I also know that somewhere deep inside, you know that these words are true!

I have spent countless hours, sleepless nights, just to bring this to you because somewhere deep inside, you believed that with a little bit of help and guidance, you can accomplish miracles. You have believed that somehow someday you will break free of all these limitations that surround you and fly. You have believed in yourself. You have believed in me. If you didn't, you wouldn't be here and neither would I.

But having said that, remember: If you ever want to learn anything, there will need to be an energy exchange of some sort. There is a price for everything and you will always get what you are willing to pay for, with money or otherwise. Taking is not possible without giving, no matter how much you try, I try or anyone tries.

Whenever you make a definite decision to bring about profound changes in your life, to move forward, there will always be tests!

The tests are there NOT to stop you from going forward, but to test your soul and prepare your spirit for the next level of learning. This is not an intellectual learning I am talking about, this is true transformation of your soul, a quantum leap in evolution.

Here You Will Find The Answers You Seek To Go To The Next Level

"I am now moving into a new level of awareness of the self.."

Hi Shafin

Yes your work and lessons are really wonderful. I have new insights now and I have learned a great deal from these lessons.

Thanks ever so much for your help. I am now moving into a new level of awareness of the self and into a deepening of the core soul structure.

Again thanks for this new knowledge you have taught me. Always the best to you!

Sincerely,

Frances Barton, USA

"I am amazed and thrilled how it works so quickly."

Hi Shafin,

My name is Danute Aglinskas. I live in the Latrobe Valley Vic. Australia. I am 71 years young on the 20th March this year. The picture is of me, my husband in the centre and our 50 year old son.

I vaguely knew about Quantum Physics, you explained it in a very simple layman's language- thank you. I am now on constant vigil of my mind and things are already moving in the right direction for me. Things that were put off for 18 months are now being done. I am amazed and thrilled how it works so quickly.

Best regards

As you will see... miracles happen not only on the pages of self help books or some unverifiable distant past, but they can happen to you, right now, if you choose to believe...

"This, to me, can only be described as miraculous or even magical!"

My Dear Shafin,

I ordered your Redefine Your Reality course earlier this year. I absolutely loved the structure & assignments as I am a terrible procrastinator! I have meditated since I was a teenager which means for about 25 years. I have practiced all types of self-realization techniques with great results.

However, with your program I actually experienced miracles! For example, I was adopted when I was three years old. I could not understand how I could be given away at such an age & despite being raised in a wonderful family; I couldn't help feeling as if I were worthless. I searched my whole adult life for my biological parents. By regularly reading your letters & practicing your principles, (which are quite ancient - you have a gift of making them accessible to the modern person), the universe so arranged it that my birth mother found me! After 40 years, she suddenly came to me! I have met her now & have learned the circumstances & the story of my adoption. I also found out I have a full biological sister who was adopted out also but went to another family sooner than I, perhaps because she was 11 months younger. She is also part of my life now. This, to me, can only be described as miraculous or even magical!

The universe has altered in many ways since learning from you. I have found a higher truth that is impersonal & applicable to all. I have also found many of my own personal higher truths by accessing my soul, intuition & guides. These are aspects I never utilized in my meditations & they continually change my life. Above is but one example of the extraordinary things that have occurred this year.

It seems that my life & my Self is expanding, becoming deeply calm & the things I need are appearing as if raining from the sky! I will not stop this way of working on myself with my soul & guides because I feel as though a major event is afoot. Possibly several major events are coming & I cannot explain how but I absolutely know it & feel it with all of my essence! I have even had epiphanies to the effect where I have seen the events manifesting & have cried with absolute gratitude although they haven't happened yet!

I don't wish to take up too much space here so I will stop for now! I thank you with all the gratitude & love of the universe that you have opened up to me!

Sincerely,

Kimberly Bennett
